MIAMI EDGEWATER

THE FIRST OF ITS KIND

Life in Miami has never been more magical. Introducing EDITION Residences, Miami Edgewater — the first private EDITION residence in the world.

As a unique expression of home, the concept is a distinctive living experience that transcends traditional hotel residences. Its vision is to offer discerning lovers of the Miami lifestyle an intriguing mix of cultural richness, elegant tranquility and the unmatched creativity, allure and expertise of EDITION Hotels.

A signature design by Bernardo Fort-Brescia and refined interiors by Studio Munge come together to deliver an exquisite collection of homes in the center of the Magic City. The inspired residences are seamlessly infused with considered amenities for an exceptional lifestyle that adapts elegantly to quiet reflection and wellness as they do to poolside hosting and luxurious dining. Beyond the amenities of home, residents will enjoy more than 800 feet of scenic waterfront leading to Margaret Pace Park, one of Miami's highest-rated recreational areas.

As Miami's best kept secret, the Edgewater neighborhood exudes the intimacy of a private residential enclave mere minutes from Miami's most exciting cultural destinations including six out of eleven of Miami's newly named Michelin Guide restaurants, Miami Design District, Wynwood, and Downtown. EDITION Residences, Miami Edgewater reimagines the concept of home with the best of all Miami has to offer.
